About this book

This book is for people who do not have a safe place to live.

It is about

- enrolling to vote

- voting in elections

- non-voting fines.

What is voting?

An election is when you make a choice about who is in charge.

To make a choice you need to vote.

All votes are equal.

Voting is your human right.

Why should I vote?

You can help choose who is in government.

The government makes decisions about your community. For example, about

- health
- schools
- housing.

Australia has 3 types of government.

There is the

- Federal government
- State government
- local council.

You want to vote

You need to enrol. This means you need to put your name on a list.

Who can enrol?

You can enrol if you are

- an Australian citizen
- and
- aged 18 years or older.

An Australian citizen is a person who was

- born in Australia
- or
- born overseas but now lives in Australia.

This person has made a special promise to follow the laws in Australia. This person has become an Australian citizen.

How to enrol

If you do not have a safe place to live
you can still enrol to vote.

You do not need ID to enrol

Someone who is already enrolled to vote can confirm your identity.

To enrol, get a no fixed address form from

- a support worker

or

- the Victorian Electoral Commission.

How to enrol

Ask someone you know to help you fill in the form.

For example, a

- friend
- family member
- support worker.

This person needs to be enrolled to vote.

If you move into a permanent house you need a different form.

Talk to your support worker.

Fines

If you have never enrolled before

You will not be fined.

We want everyone to enrol to vote.

What if I have a fine for not voting?

Do not panic. Do not ignore it.

- Call the Victorian Electoral Commission

Ask a support worker to help you.

Where to vote

You may be able to vote at a

- housing service you use

or

a voting centre for State elections.

If you can't vote in person, you can apply for a postal vote.

All council elections use postal votes only - you get a ballot pack in the mail.

Ask a support worker about this.

If you fill out the no fixed address form, your ballot pack will be sent to the address where you said you collect your mail.

Voting is secret

You do not have to show anyone your vote.

My information

When you enrol, your name goes on a list. This list is called an electoral roll.

Who can see the electoral roll?

Anyone can view the electoral roll.

If you enrol using a no fixed address form only your name will appear on the roll.
